The Christmas Season Filled With Activities

The wonderful season of Christmas time fills the hearts of everybody at Barium Springs. All of the activities culminate in the happenings of Christmas day. Because the day is on Sunday this year, the regular schedule will be a little different from other years. Provisions have been made for every cottage to have its own cottage breakfast and Christmas tree within its cottage and to remain as a family unit enjoying Christmas until time for the eleven o'clock morning church service. At that time, the children will join the people of the community in the worship service at Little Joe's Presbyterian Church. At noon, the Christmas dinner will be served in the big dining hall. Cakes and candy and nuts and fruit, cranberries and turkeys and dressing and all that goes with making a wonderful Christmas dinner will be ready. When the meal is over, the customary open house on campus will prevail and boys and girls will be visiting each other in their cottages and checking on the gifts of Santa that have been received. Also, there will be open house in the Fellowship Hall of Little Joe's Presbyterian Church. The Senior High Fellowship, the director of youth work and the minister will be hosts for the occasion. The big fireplace will be loaded with Christmas logs and the friends and families will have a place to meet and enjoy the Christmas fellowship together.

Before the day arrives, there are many activities that will delight the children. One will be the usual fraternity party at Davidson where the boys and girls in grades one through seven are invited. This is one of the great events that have been in existence here for many long years. The children thoroughly enjoy this and anticipate the Christmas season with the visit to the fraternity houses at Davidson with the boys there. The choirs in their work on Christmas music and the Junior Choir in its preparation for the Junior Choir Festival held in Statesville in the early part of the Christmas season, also, are a source of great pleasure, not only to those who prepare and participate, but to those who share in the services of worship. The primary school was given a Christmas trip to Charlotte. The bus loaded at eight-thirty in the morning and rolled into the big city. These children had a chance to visit all the stores and to talk with old Santa and then go by the cafeteria for a Christmas lunch. Christmas shopping, also, is impor-

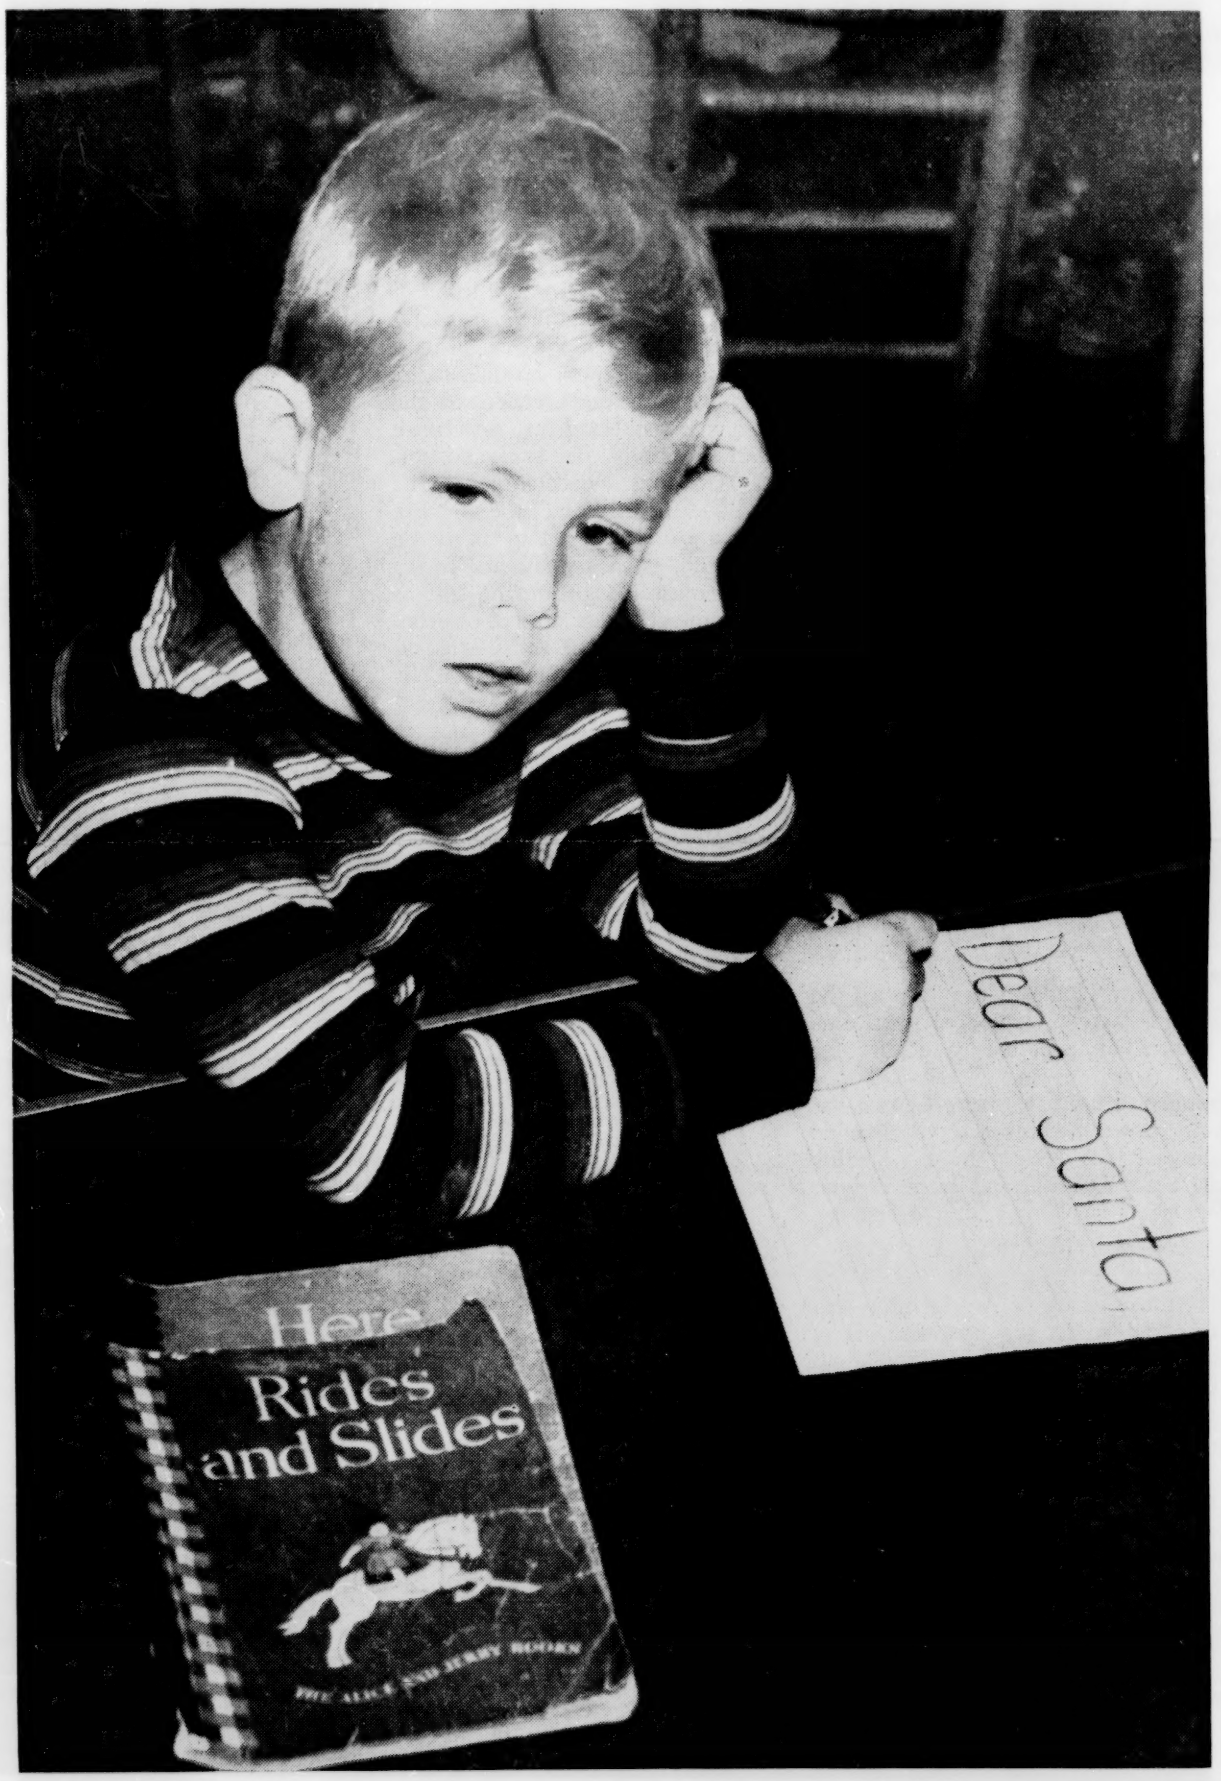
Serious Christmas Thinking



"The boy in the picture represents a seriousness which all the children of the Home give to the writing of their Santa letters. These letters, prepared in November and sent out all over the state to individuals and groups, will mean a wonderful thrill for each one as he opens his packages on Christmas morning."

Regents On Campus For Fall Meeting Of Board

The Regents of the Home elected by the Synod representing the nine Presbyteries convened on the campus for the regular semi-annual meeting. The Board received the usual reports from the superintendent and the treasurer of the Home, which review the activities of the twelve months' period and sets forth the financial picture in general.

Mr. Royall Brown, chairman of the Finance Committee, presented to the Board the report of the auditors which showed that the operation of the institution had been within the approved budget and again without deficit. Mr. Ennis Jackson, chairman of the Buildings and Grounds Committee, reported that the staff quarters had been finished and that the swimming pool was well underway. He, then, presented the architects of the J. N. Pease Company who discussed sketches for the rebuilding of Howard Cottage. The Board has authorized the replacement of the old building with a new one-story fireproof building similar to the two most recently built on campus and continued use of the name, Howard Cottage. The Buildings and Grounds Committee was authorized to make a special study of Rumple Hall and offer some long-range planning for that particular building. Originally, Rumple Hall was a square three-story school building Later, wings were added to the North and South, enlarging the dining room and making available living quarters on the second floor. To the west side was added a small addition for dish washing purposes and, then, a large brick kitchen was built on to that section. The size, shape, and general condition of this tremendous building make it necessary to give special consideration to it for the best interest of the children in the Home.

Barium apples and cider were made available for the Regents as they left the campus. President M. C. Benton expressed some apprehension lest the officers along the way suspect his colleague Brown from Winston-Salem of being in another business.

One of the most interesting items of business during the session of the Board was the adoption of the new name for the Home and recommending it to the Synod of North Carolina. The name chosen is Barium Springs Home for Children. This will replace the commonly used title of Presbyterian Orphans' Home and the corporate

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year

UNDER THE STEEPLE

By Rev. Hugh B. Carter, Jr.

Twelve collegians from twelve different colleges were present for one or more services during the Thanksgiving Holidays: Julia Clendenin of Flora Macdonald, Celia Donaldson, WCUNC; Edna Evans, ASTC; Jeane Murdoch, Mary Baldwin; Kay Nance, King's Business College, and Beverly McClure, UNC. From Davidson came Tom Finley, Graham Blake from Lees-McRae, James Blake from East Carolina, Donald Frazier, PJC; Dickie McKenzie, Pfeiffer; and Jim White from Chowan College. Exactly half of our members in college took their familiar places in the congregation of Little Joe's Church. During the Christmas Season we hope to see these and the other dozen students whom we missed at Thanksgiving.

Call our Senior High Fellowship the "Travelers" of the campus. Since the Retreat to Camp Grier in September, our group has been to Hickory for the Fall Rally, to Davidson as guests of the SHF there, and to Plaza Church in Charlotte for supper. The group, in turn, has been host to Holy Trinity Lutheran Seniors of Statesville, and to the Davidson group during our week of special services. In addition, the SHF has sponsored a paper drive, and has taken a leading part in the Every Member Canvass. Flip Charts describing the work of the Church were prepared and presented to the various cottages by the following teams: Howard Cox and Henry Harris, Edward Barefoot and Eloise Barefoot; Henry Bridgers and Margaret Joyner, Margaret Ramsey and Peggy Bridgers, Glenn Houck and Joyce Ann Hughes. Student pledges amounted to more than $560.

Pioneers have been active too. Many posters were made to illustrate sermon subjects by Dr. Thompson during our Fall Enrichment week. Prize for the best poster went to Peggy Jo Utsman. Pioneers have travelled to Mooresville's First Church for a Halloween party and to Statesville's First Church for supper and a special program by Statesville Pioneers.

The Women of the Church baked and sent cookies to more than two dozen college students who in turn replied with appreciation and many compliments. The Women will prepare supper for a joint meeting of Men and Women of the Church in December and the Men will be responsible for the program.

We are proud of Jack Smith and Troy Homesley for reciting the Catechism for Younger Children. Awards were presented to them during a regular Morning Worship. Others are expected to qualify for awards before Christmas.

The pastor's class for those planning to unite with the Church has thirteen members: Jerry Brewer, Anita Bowers, Frankie Davis, Frankie Dennis, Larry Edwards, Marvin Elliott, Royce Harris, Randy Medlin, Bobby Neill, Marie Ross, Jack Smith, Percy Utsman, and Jerry Wright. Their reception as full communing members is planned for the first day of the New Year, 1961.

Once again, as it has for so many many times, the world spins into the Advent Season bristling with fear and anger, the nations snarling like wolves, its family of human beings jealous and vindictive, individuals tense. Into such a world as this Christ comes. Christmas means that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners! The poet William E. Brooks had written:

In the Roman midnight Caesar lay,
And dreamed of a kingdom never to fall;
And in humble Bethlehem, leagues away,
A baby slept in a cattle stall.

Splendor and pomp and purple his,
And fame that reached to the sea's last wave;
While the baby's store was a mother's kiss,
And a golden coin that a wise man gave.

Caesar had legions with flashing swords,
And trumpets that blared of his terrible might;
But the baby's strength was an angel's words,
And a song men heard on a starlit night.

A song and a promise that God had given-
Ah, how the years have mocked the words!
And peace seems far, and again at heaven
The Caesars glower and shake their swords.

But short is each arm that holds the sword,
And angels laugh at the futile play,
For they know that God has given his Word,
In His Son who was born that Christmas Day!

A NEW NAME CHOSEN

Board of Regents, in its most recent meeting, voted to change the name of Presbyterian Orphans' Home to "Barium Springs Home for Children." The Synod of North Carolina will be requested to confirm this selection and the charter will be amended in keeping with the new name.

The Christmas Gift And Christmas Greetings

There are always two trees that go up first in the Christmas season at Barium Springs. One is a large tree in the center of the dining room and the other stands in the center of the campus in front of Rumple Hall. Both of them are traditional and symbolic. The Christmas season begins officially on the campus with the erection of the tree, the gathering of the entire Barium family, the staff and students, for the decoration of the tree and the making of the gift. Big red stockings are hung near the tree, and, as each individual comes by to make his gift to the tree in the name of others, a piece of decoration is picked up and placed on the tree. This done in candlelight and caroling makes a beautiful beginning for the Christmas season. When the gifts have been made and the tree has been decorated, the tree is lighted and the family does homage to the Savior of the world and, in His name, sends to others the Christmas gift from the Home. The big tree standing on the campus will be lighted to the highest branch and throughout the season will stand in full glow, saying to all who pass by "Merry Christmas from Barium Springs." Thus, these two traditional and symbolic trees express the heart of Christmas to those in the Home and to those who pass this way.

Cottage News

JOHNSTON COLLEGE

Hi Readers!

This is Johnston Cottage reporting the happenings of our cottage. Yesterday was Thanksgiving. It was a big day for us. We had turkey and dressing and other good things to eat. We got our report cards the other day. Some of them were pretty bad; but, others were very pleasing. Some of our boys are on the junior varsity basketball team, which we hope will win some games this year. Even if we don't win any games, we will try to be good sports. On November 25, our scout troop went on an overnight camping trip. We had a very good time, except it was very cold at night. We are now looking forward to Christmas which is just around the corner. We have written our Christmas letters to tell what we would like for Christmas.

Most of our boys have already caught more rabbits in our traps than we have for the past two years. Even our housemother is making a trap to set in her flower garden. We are not supposed to know about it; but, she is attempting to show us up by catching the big back yard rabbit that visits her flower garden each night.

Until we write the news again, this is Quad 3 boys wishing you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Johnston Cottage Boys

JENNIE GILMER COTTAGE

This fall is really rushing into winter now, with Thanksgiving just over we're looking forward to Christmas soon.

Most of our boys are busy with basketball. We haven't yet played a game, but are putting in a lot of time practicing. Also, Billy Brinkley was in the Infirmary for a few days with a cold. He's glad to be out again. Clarence Wilkins had his sixteenth Birthday on the twelfth of November, and Braxton Bridgers and Edward Barefoot will have birthdays this month; Braxton's is on December 5th and Ed's is on December 29th.

We want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year.

The Boys at Jennie Gilmer

RUMPLE HALL COTTAGE

Greetings!

We're winding up our Thanksgiving holidays now. We hope everyone enjoyed them as much as we did.

We have our Statesville water now. We're very happy to have it, but it has a different taste from our Barium water. One of our girls, when she heard we were going to get our Statesville water that afternoon, asked Miss Sims if she could put a gallon jar of Barium water in the refrigerator to save for drinking water. Upon receiving permission, she filled her jar and placed it in the refrigerator. The next day we found that she had preserved a whole gallon of Statesville water. If maybe you want to know the details of this story, ask Nancy Joyner —I'm sure she'll be glad to fill you in.

It won't be long until Christmas. We've written our "Santa Claus" letters and we're anxiously awaiting the holiday season.

We have already started our basketball practice. Our first game is December 6. We play Statesville. Everyone is looking forward to this long awaited time. We only have one girl, Elva Medlin, playing varsity.

We'll see you next month with our little bits of news.

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hi—

This is the time we all start thinking of Christmas with all its excitement. We have written our Santa Claus letters and are getting our stockings patched up for his yearly visit down our chimney.

Basketball is on everyone's mind, now that football is ending. We didn't win all of our games; we didn't even win half of them, but we played clean and we played with a lot of school spirit. We had a lot of fun even if our boys didn't end up with a winning season.

On Thanksgiving we went to a ten o'clock service at the church. Our dinner was fit for a king, with turkey and all the trimmings. Nearly two hundred "Kings and Queens" helped eat the wonderful dinner.

So long until next month.

INFIRMARY

Hi,

It is the Infirmary once again. We have been real busy lately. We have been getting plenty of patients in bed with the common cold and other sicknesses.

We have gotten report cards two times and both of the Infirmary girls have passed. We are in the eleventh grade this year.

We have had our traditional Thanksgiving service and dinner. We certainly did enjoy our Thanksgiving and hope everyone of you did, also.

One of our girls has a birthday this month, which is December 15. This is the month everyone looks forward to getting out of school for the Christmas holidays. Christmas is just around the corner! This will be a busy month for everyone of us on the campus. We have trees to decorate and packages to wrap.

We will see you again next month. We wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

LOTTIE WALKER GIRLS

Hi Friends,

Here we are back again with our cottage news.

We have added a new addition to our happy family, a little puppy named Honey. We had a beautiful Thanksgiving service and a delicious dinner.

We are very proud of two of our girls, Margaret Ramsey and Peggy Bridgers for making the varsity basketball team, and Judy Smith and Linda Bridgers for making the junior varsity team.

The next important event on our schedule is Christmas. We are looking forward to Christmas holidays.

That is all the news for now.

Your friends,
The Lottie Walker Girls
